TODAY'S VERSE: ...while we wait for the blessed hope — the glorious appearing of our great God and Savior, Jesus Christ, who gave himself for us to redeem us from all wickedness and to purify for himself a people that are his very own, eager to do what is good.

— Titus 2:13-14

THOUGHTS ON TODAY'S VERSE: Some of the most basic and elevated statements about Jesus are made in 1 & 2 Timothy and Titus. These letters are devoted to help ministers mature churches in difficult places. They are incredibly practical, but also are rooted in the work of Jesus, his divinity, and his faithfulness. We are waiting for the Faithful One! We trust that he will come for us because of what he sacrificed to redeem us. While we wait, we honor his mission by being a people eager to do what is good, showing in our lives that he is our Lord.

MY PRAYER: O God, I find myself waiting for Jesus. Because he is coming for me, I know my life has direction and meaning even on those days that are long, hard, and seemingly fruitless. Fire my heart to wait longingly for Jesus' glorious appearing and stir my desires to want what is only good and holy. I want to see you! But, dear Lord, I also long to be like you! In the glorious name of Jesus I pray. Amen.

WHAT JESUS SAID

[Jesus said,] "What sorrow awaits you who are rich, for you have your only happiness now."
— Luke 6:24 NLT

So often we let our treasure become the things that are stuck "in the here and now." They do not have the lasting power to sustain us in this life, much less in the life to come. There is a very real sense that Christians should live "in the here and now" with a sense of urgency and awareness, but not focused on the material things of the "here and now." We should be fully alive every moment because we know that what we do in this life matters for all of eternity. However, we must learn to build our hopes on what is lasting and eternal, not what is fleeting and subject to decay. Sorrows do await those who trust in their riches because those riches will not keep them from death and those riches will not go with them in death. All the happiness that they will ever receive is what they experience on earth. They lose out on the glory of the Kingdom. Let's invest in treasures that last — love for God, love for his children, and love for his praise. These are things that we know last forever!

PRAY FOR OUR MISSION EFFORTS

TIPTON HOME FOR CHILDREN DENNIS & SHARON WELCH IN CAMBODIA, INDIA MISSIONS

From India: Today in India, millions are becoming Christians. With the acceptance of the Gospel and obedience to it, and with a population of 1,367,000,000, India now has at least 100,000 congregations of the Lord's church. These numbers are real, factual and true! It is almost impossible to explain how extensive this movement is. India is where America was 150 years ago (in spiritual terms).

A little financial support goes a long way.
