TODAY'S VERSE: Rid yourselves of all the offenses you have committed, and get a new heart and a new spirit... Repent and live!
— Ezekiel 18:31-32

THOUGHTS ON TODAY'S VERSE: God reminds us to turn away from our own self-seeking ways. He calls us to turn to him with a willingness to obey his will. If we refuse, we must know that we are walking the road that leads to death. God longs to do the work of rebirth and renewal, but he asks us to turn from our destructive ways and offer our hearts to him to be made new by his Holy Spirit. Repentance is to turn off the road leading to destruction and onto the road that leads to the Father's house, the place of life.

MY PRAYER: Please forgive me, O mighty God, for trying to rule and govern my own life. I confess that I've made a mess of things when I haven't obeyed your Word and when I have rebelled against your will. I want to turn my heart and life completely over to you. I want to obey your will and to live for your glory. Thank you for your forgiveness and strength as I seek to find life in you. In the name of the Savior Jesus, I pray. Amen.

WHAT JESUS DID

When a certain immoral woman from that city heard [Jesus] was eating there, she brought a beautiful alabaster jar filled with expensive perfume. Then she knelt behind him at his feet, weeping. Her tears fell on his feet, and she wiped them off with her hair. Then she kept kissing his feet and putting perfume on them.

— Luke 7:37-38 NLT

This event occurred in the house of a certain Pharisee. This woman was the antithesis of the Pharisee. He was a man. She was a woman. He was scrupulously and legalistically religious in his behavior. She was an immoral woman from the city. He would have been very conservative and appropriate in his demeanor. She was extravagant and bold in showing her love and appreciation for Jesus. The key message, however, is that Jesus was open to both types of people and longed to show love and share God's grace. Are we? As this story unfolds, however, the woman was clearly the hero because of her extravagant love. How do we respond to the presence of Jesus among us? Isn't his presence with us when we are with other believers (1 Corinthians 3:16) — and even with each of us individually (Romans 8:9-11 NIV, 1 Corinthians 6:18-20)? Hmm... I wonder about the extravagance of our display of love knowing that Jesus is with us. Equally revealing, how do we respond to the presence of someone like the woman among us knowing that Jesus told us our treatment of others is also our treatment of him (Matthew 25:34-45)?

PRAY FOR OUR MISSION EFFORTS

TIPTON HOME FOR CHILDREN DENNIS & SHARON WELCH IN CAMBODIA, INDIA MISSIONS

*****

From Cambodia: Recently we started a mission in Kampot Province, selecting prayer points at which to pray for the province and the people. It was also the first opportunity for Dennis to have this prayer ministry with Sharon and our three daughters. Please join our prayer that the Cambodians, Buddhists, Muslims and Animists of Kampot will have an opportunity to hear the Good News about Jesus. Please continue to pray for us as we strive to build community in our area and deepen relationships with neighbors and fellow workers, and as we coach and mentor others toward spiritual maturity and growth.

QUOTEMEAL: "We must adjust to changing times and still hold to unchanging principles."

— Jimmy Carter

"The greater your knowledge of the goodness and grace of God on your life, the more likely you are to praise Him in the storm."

— Matt Chandler

DAILY WISDOM: The fear of the LORD teaches a man wisdom, and humility comes before honor.

— Proverbs 15:33

The fear of the LORD adds length to life, but the years of the wicked are cut short.

— Proverbs 10:27
