TODAY'S VERSE: Restore us to yourself, O LORD, that we may return; renew our days as of old.

— Lamentations 5:21

THOUGHTS ON TODAY'S VERSE: When these words were first spoken, they focused on God's restoration of Israel back to its place, its prominence, its life, and its Temple. Yet from our vantage point, this prayer can be ours as well. Restoration can mean Christ's return which brings us home to God. On that day, every barrier standing between God and us will fall. Our mortality will be swallowed up in victory. We will see God face to face and get to walk with him in the cool of the day as his perfect children. May that day come soon!

MY PRAYER: Holy and awesome God, I know a huge gulf stands between your perfection and my limitations. Yet, dear Father, I believe you have spanned that gulf with your grace. While I wait for that perfection to dawn in all its fullness, please empower me for my battles with the Evil One and deliver me from all spiritual harm and attack. Until the day I see you face to face, please accept my all-too-limited and human praise for all you have done to save me. In Jesus' name I pray. Amen.

WHAT JESUS SAID

[Jesus said,] "And if you are not faithful with other people's things, why should you be trusted with things of your own? No one can serve two masters. For you will hate one and love the other; you will be devoted to one and despise the other. You cannot serve God and be enslaved to money."
— Luke 16:12-13 NLT

Money can be our master, but we must not let it. If we aren't careful, we can covet money, sell our virtue for money, be manipulated for money, and even risk our lives for money. Few things have such pull on our human hearts. Paul warned that greed is a form of idolatry (Colossians 3:5). In other words, money and our desire for it can become our god and our religion. Jesus made it clear that there is room in our hearts for only one consuming love. That love will be the master of our lives. We cannot serve God if money becomes our master. We cannot worship and serve both God and money. So which do you choose?

PRAYER LIST

Bob is still having difficulty breathing.

Remember Judy as she suffers with daily back pain.

Joann had x-rays to find the cause of pain in her arm.

Paul Hernandez has had several events recently that have given him emotional pain. Please pray for him.

From Cambodia:

We ask for your prayers for wisdom and guidance as we pray and prepare for what's next and new on the horizon in our ministry. We love Cambodia and give thanks for what is next. It's exciting to consider the possibilities and see how God will continue to work through us.

Thank you for faithfully walking with us and remembering us in prayer. We pray the Lord continues to bless you richly.

QUOTEMEAL: "Praising God is one of the highest and purest acts of religion. In prayer we act like men; in praise we act like angels."

— Thomas Watson

"We cannot force someone to hear a message they are not ready to receive, but we must never underestimate the power of planting a seed."

DAILY WISDOM: Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

— Matthew 5:3

For we are to God the aroma of Christ among those who are being saved and those who are perishing. To the one we are the smell of death; to the other, the fragrance of life. And who is equal to such a task?

— 2 Corinthians 2:15-16

Evangelism

Wednesday night's class was about discussing the need for bringing in new members and sharing the gospel with folks in this area. Several ideas were mentioned to accomplish this goal—handouts, mailouts, door-knocking and word of mouth. If you have ideas about helping with reaching others, please let us know.
