TODAY'S VERSE: For Christ died for sins once for all, the righteous for the unrighteous, to bring you to God.— 1 Peter 3:18

THOUGHTS ON TODAY'S VERSE: It sounds so simple and straightforward, doesn't it? Kinda like the newspaper headline about someone dying we don't know. Just cold, hard facts! But we know differently. Underneath this statement of grace lies the broken heart of God, the sacrifice of heaven, the brutality of supposedly religious men, and the searching love of our God who would not abandon us to the cruel "Deathmaster." For those who knew animal sacrifice, with its high personal cost and animal sacrifices, this verse is more than a headline: it is a "graceline." Once for all — no more sacrifices needed. Bring you to God — no more distance, no intermediaries between God and us. Jesus is heaven's open door and God's open heart saying, "Come home; we've been waiting for you."

MY PRAYER: What words, O gracious Father, can I use to express my appreciation for your sacrifice and grace? I have none sufficient to say what I feel. But even in this realization, I know the gift of your Spirit ensures that you hear my words and my heart. Every good and lasting thing I have comes from your grace. Please receive my undying love and my heartfelt praise for all you are, for all you have done, and for all that you will be. In Jesus' precious name I pray. Amen.

WHAT JESUS SAID

[Jesus continued,] "Finally, the poor man died and was carried by the angels to sit beside Abraham at the heavenly banquet. The rich man also died and was buried, and he went to the place of the dead. There, in torment, he saw Abraham in the far distance with Lazarus at his side."
— Luke 16:22-23

We spend a lot of time investing in "things" that don't matter. "Things" give us a facade of importance in our earthly sojourn. However, "things" don't go with us when we face God at judgment; all that will matter then is how we used those "things" to bless others. Lazarus was received with God's care into a place of comfort and promise. The rich man faced torment. Let's not let "things," whether they are our own or they are "possessed" by someone else, distract our hearts from what is important.

CAMBODIA, INDIA MISSIONS,
SPENCER ROSS AND WBI.

From Cambodia:

We ask for your prayers for wisdom and guidance as we pray and prepare for what's next and new on the horizon in our ministry. We love Cambodia and give thanks for what is next. It's exciting to consider the possibilities and see how God will continue to work through us.

Thank you for faithfully walking with us and remembering us in prayer. We pray the Lord continues to bless you richly.

APOLOGY

It is with a sincere heart that I apologize to Lonny Henry. I failed to remind this family that he had a birthday on the 16th. Wayne

QUOTEMEAL: "Without a purpose, life is motion without meaning, activity without direction, and events without reason. Without a purpose, life is trivial, petty and pointless."

— Rick Warren

"Many Bible passages (such as Luke 13:3 or Acts 2:38) issue a call for repentance. Repentance? The very thought stops our hearts with chilling honesty, for it insists that we come clean before we set out to execute life's important choices. Repentance demands that we choose a path of holy living."

— Calvin Miller

DAILY WISDOM: Do not merely listen to the word, and so deceive yourselves. Do what it says.

— James 1:22

Be joyful always; pray continually; give thanks in all circumstances, for this is God's will for you in Christ Jesus.

— 1 Thessalonians 5:16-18

Evangelism

Wednesday night's class was about discussing the need for bringing in new members and sharing the gospel with folks in this area. Several ideas were mentioned to accomplish this goal—handouts, mailouts, door-knocking and word of mouth. If you have ideas about helping with reaching others, please let us know.
